Andrew specialises in international commercial arbitration and also advises on investment treaty arbitration. He has a particular interest in the use of arbitration in connection with international finance.

Andrew has acted in arbitrations held under a wide variety of rules (ICC, LCIA, SCC, AAA, Swiss Rules of International Arbitration, ICSID), in London, The Hague, Zurich, Stockholm and Washington DC. His experience includes acting for clients in a variety of business sectors, including finance, defence, utilities, steel, brewing and media.

Andrew has previously undertaken a secondment with the LCIA's casework team, and he holds a postgraduate diploma in international arbitration, with distinction.

In 2010 he was appointed by the European Commission to its Group of Experts providing advice on arbitration and the reform of the Brussels I Regulation.

Andrew is one of the co-chairs of ASA's (Swiss Arbitration Association) below 40 group, a member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and a member of the LCIA's Young International Arbitration Group. He is a solicitor admitted in England and Wales.
