Ulrike Gantenberg is a partner of Heuking Kühn Lüer Wojtek, an independent law firm with about 400 lawyers. Heuking Kühn Lüer Wojtek is one of the major independent German law firms with offices in Berlin, Brussels, Chemnitz, Cologne, Düsseldorf, Frankfurt am Main, Hamburg, Munich, Stuttgart and Zurich. The law firm has a full-service approach including, in particular, general corporate and commercial, M&A and international arbitration. Ulrike Gantenberg's areas of practice are dispute resolution (litigation and international arbitration), corporate and M&A. She is one of the leading partners of the firm's dispute resolution practice. As a qualified German lawyer with experience of working in France, Ulrike Gantenberg is particularly dedicated to international work. Besides German, she speaks English and French fluently.

Ulrike Gantenberg acts as counsel and arbitrator (sole arbitrator, chair and co-arbitrator) in international arbitration proceedings (ad hoc, DIS, ICC, LCIA, VIAC, SCC etc.) and litigation, particularly on post-M&A, corporate/licence, construction and investor-state disputes, and as counsel in DAB proceedings regarding turnkey and energy projects. She is a frequent speaker on issues of international arbitration and international private law at international events and conferences.

Ulrike Gantenberg regularly publishes on arbitration and corporate issues and is a member of the board of directors of the German Institution of Arbitration (DIS) and chair of the working group for alternative dispute resolution of the German Bar Association (DAV).
