

Carole Malinvaud

Partner - Gide Loyrette Nouel Paris
International Arbitration
Tel. +33 (0)1 40 75 36 66
malinvaud@gide.com

Areas of Expertise

Carole Malinvaud is a partner at Gide based in Paris where she co-heads the international arbitration activity of the firm. Educated under French and US law she has acted either as counsel or as arbitrator in over sixty international arbitration proceedings either ad hoc or institutional, as well as before domestic French courts in relation to international litigations and arbitrations.

Recent Professional Experience

Carole's recent activities include two major ICC arbitrations involving commercial interests in Africa and in the banking sector in Europe and the Middle East. She also acts on behalf of a Spanish investor in an ICSID case on investments in Latin America. She currently acts as Chair arbitrator in two major ICC proceedings relating to commercial interests in Latin America and Asia.

Professional Experience and Qualifications

Partner Gide Loyrette Nouel since 2001
Admitted to the Paris Bar and the New York Bar
Master of Laws (LL.M.), Harvard Law School
University of Paris II, DEA in "Private & International Law"

Miscellaneous (Works Published, Professional Associations, etc.)

- Chair of the Gide Pro Bono Foundation.
- Chair of the International Chamber of Commerce French international arbitration commission (ICC France).
- Chair of the Comité Français de l'Arbitrage (CFA)
- Member of the LCIA Court.
- Former Officer of the International Bar Association (IBA).
- Elected Member of the International Council of Arbitration for Sport (ICAS).
- Member of the first instance disciplinary commission of the French Golf Federation since 1998.
- Regularly referenced as a "leading individual" and "leading arbitrator" in international arbitration rankings such as Chambers Global World-wide (2012 edition) or Chambers Global Europe-wide (2012 edition).

Languages

French, English and Spanish